A three bedroom end of terrace ex authority property situated in the highly regarded rural village of Manaccan.

The property benefits from LPG gas central heating along with an oil fired central heating and double glazing.

The grounds and gardens are an absolute delight and of good proportions with the rear garden being nicely enclosed and offering good degrees of privacy.

The accommodation in brief provides an entrance area, snug/lounge, second reception room/dining area and fitted kitchen. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

There are also two useful outbuildings one of which has a W.C.

We are advised that there is allocated parking.

The property is subject to a Local Occupancy Restriction which, in general terms, requires buyers to have lived or worked in Cornwall for the last three years. Further details are available in the Agents Note below.

Manaccan is a delightful rural village situated on the Lizard Peninsula which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. On the edge of the parish are the unspoilt waters of the Helford River with its sheltered creeks, opening out into Falmouth Bay and beyond; a mecca for the sailing enthusiast. The village itself has a primary school, a community owned thatched public house, Methodist chapel, 13th Century church and playing fields.
