Situated in one of Porthleven's most sought after cul-de-sac's of Methleigh Parc is this three bedroom, detached dormer bungalow. The residence, which benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing, is well proportioned and has been greatly enhanced by the current owners. Views can be enjoyed over other properties towards open countryside.

In brief, the accommodation on the ground floor of an entrance area, hall, kitchen/diner, bathroom, bedroom and completing the ground floor a lounge. On the first floor is a w.c. and two further bedrooms. There are gardens to the front and rear of the property with the front garden being laid to lawn and providing a good size parking area which leads to a garage. To the rear of the residence is a good size rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn, has a good size patio area and a useful shed with power.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, restaurants, Public Houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.
