Situated in the heart of mainland Britain's most southerly village, is this well proportioned, stone fronted, two bedroom barn conversion with an allocated parking space.

Trenoweth Court is made up of a small number of attractive properties, forming a lovely courtyard setting, around which there are well maintained communal gardens and grounds to enjoy.

The residence offers the versatility of a permanent home, but could equally be an exciting opportunity for those seeking a "lock up and leave" holiday let or bolthole, just moments from this popular village and its' amenities.

Designed on a single-level, the layout of the property would seem ideal for those seeking easy accessibility and comfortable living,

The residence features a generous open plan living space with the rear windows affording a distant outlook towards Lizard Point and the sea beyond. The modern fitted kitchen is well appointed, whilst there are two generously sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom

One of the highlights is the enclosed inner courtyard which offers a sheltered outdoor space in which to sit out and relax and enjoy the fresh air and sunshine.

The accommodation comprises of an open plan kitchen and dining area, large dual aspect lounge, double bedroom and shower room. The property benefits from double glazing and is warmed by electric night storage heaters.

The Lizard Peninsula with its dramatic coastline has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty, close by there are sandy beaches, the South West coastal footpath and the magnificent sailing waters of the Helford River are within easy reach. The Lizard village itself is a short drive away and has a range of amenities that include a butchers and a number of well regarded cafes, public houses and restaurants.
