Situated in the well regarded area of Cliff Road in this sought after Cornish fishing village is this two/three bedroom, beautifully presented residence. The property, which benefits from electric boiler central heating provided through feature cast iron radiators and majority double glazing, enjoys stunning sea views across Mounts Bay and towards the Lizard Peninsula. A real highlight of the characterful residence is the fabulous loft room which takes full advantage of the far reaching sea and coastal views with gable end windows and a dormer window on the seaward side.

The property is currently run as a successful holiday let – <https://www.cornishhorizons.co.uk/south-coast-cottages/porthleven/fairvi-fair-view>. This also allows the benefit of being business rate exempt

In brief, the accommodation comprises a lounge/diner and completing the ground floor, a kitchen. On the first floor is a bathroom, two bedrooms whilst to the second floor is a sitting room/bedroom three.

Porthleven is a thriving seaside Cornish fishing village with its large harbour providing a focal point. Around this cluster many pubs, award winning restaurants and other businesses. The village provides amenities to cater for everyday needs as well as a primary school, whilst the more comprehensive amenities of Helston are a few miles distant and these include national stores, cinema and sports centre with indoor swimming pool.

Situated between Helston and Porthleven is the beautiful Penrose Estate which is managed by The National Trust and where one may delight in the many walks and trails through the Cornish countryside around Loe Pool which is Cornwall's largest natural fresh water lake. Porthleven has a prize winning Brass Band which, on many a summer's Sunday evening, can be heard echoing around the village, creating atmosphere and ambience for both residents and visitors.
