Situated on the outskirts of the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven and benefitting from oil fired central heating and double glazing, is this three bedroom, terraced family house. The well proportioned property, which has been greatly enhanced by the current owners, enjoys views towards open countryside and has pleasant gardens to both the front and rear.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an entrance porch, hall, kitchen/diner, lounge and completing the ground floor, a rear porch. On the first floor is a shower room and three bedrooms.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
