A truly substantial and beautifully maintained home offering exceptional space, flexibility and lifestyle appeal, perfectly suited to modern family living, multi-generational households or those seeking space to work from home.

This impressive property provides a remarkable amount of adaptable accommodation, thoughtfully arranged to allow for both togetherness and independence, making it ideal for large or extended families, or those with older children or relatives requiring their own space.

The main living accommodation is warm and inviting, with a spacious lounge/dining room centred around a cosy log burner, creating a wonderful hub for everyday life. A separate sitting room provides an additional relaxing space, also featuring a log burner, perfect for quieter moments or evenings in.

The kitchen is well-equipped and practical, complemented by a utility area, and positioned to serve the home effortlessly whether for busy family life or entertaining on a larger scale.

A particularly versatile ground floor en-suite bedroom, with double doors opening onto the garden, offers fantastic flexibility. Whether used as a bedroom, guest suite, home office or garden room, it adapts beautifully to changing needs.

The bedroom accommodation is extensive and thoughtfully arranged, with multiple en-suite rooms providing comfort and privacy throughout. A superb master suite offers a dressing area, excellent storage and a spacious bathroom, creating a peaceful retreat within the home.

A separate wing of the property provides further independent accommodation, ideal for multi-generational living, older children, visiting guests or those seeking a degree of separation within the home. This area can be accessed either internally or via its own private entrance, offering true versatility.

Outside, the property continues to impress. To the front, attractive patio-style gardens create a welcoming setting, perfect for enjoying morning coffee. To the rear, a beautifully enclosed and private garden offers a variety of seating areas, lawn, patio and a greenhouse, with spaces designed to enjoy the sun throughout the day. A productive side garden provides an opportunity for growing your own vegetables and herbs.

A generous parking area and substantial double garage complete this superb home.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a large and highly adaptable property that can evolve with your lifestyle, whether you are looking for space for family life, flexible living arrangements, or the ability to work comfortably from home. There is also scope for those who may wish to generate an income, subject to their own requirements.

LOCATION

Helston is famed for its historic Flora Day celebrations on 8th May when the town is bedecked with greenery, bluebells and gorse and throughout the day dancers weave in and out of shops, houses and gardens following the Helston Town Band playing the famous Flora Dance and ushering in the Summer. Helston was granted its charter in 1201 and was originally a thriving port. However, as the river silted up over the years, the port gradually ceased to be. Where the river joined the sea is now Cornwall's largest natural freshwater lake, separated from the sea by Loe Bar, a long sand bar. The bustling market town hosts a mixture of Victorian and Georgian architecture of which York House is a fine example.

The modern town and surrounding area boast many Primary Schools. The nearest secondary schools are in Helston and Mullion. Helston also enjoys a leisure centre with a swimming pool and large gym and many amenity areas including the Coronation Boating Lake and the beautiful National Trust Penrose Estate offering a host of woodland walks.

Helston is widely regarded as the gateway to the stunning Lizard Peninsula and is also within a 10 minute drive of the thriving harbour and coastline at Porthleven which offers an array of shops and good quality restaurants as well as world class surf. The city of Truro and the towns of Falmouth, Penzance and Hayle are all within a 20 to 45 minute drive.
