Set within the highly desirable Cornish fishing village of Porthleven, this substantial five-bedroom detached bungalow offers a superb blend of modern comfort and scenic surroundings. Elevated in position, the property enjoys far-reaching views across neighbouring buildings towards open countryside, including Methleigh Farm and Tregonning Hill.

Beautifully updated by the current owners, the home features a stylish, contemporary fitted kitchen alongside a range of modern enhancements such as an air source heat pump, solar panels, and double glazing.

The well-proportioned accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, W.C., spacious kitchen/diner, inner hall, comfortable lounge, family bathroom, and five bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from its own ensuite shower room.

Externally, the property is surrounded by mature, well-maintained gardens with established planting, patio areas, a greenhouse, a charming summer house, and a log store—ideal for enjoying the peaceful setting. A gated driveway provides ample parking for multiple vehicles and leads to a generous double garage with two remotely operated single garage doors.

Porthleven is a thriving seaside Cornish fishing village with its large harbour providing a focal point. Around this cluster many pubs, restaurants and businesses. The village provides amenities to cater for everyday needs as well as a primary school, whilst the more comprehensive amenities of Helston are a few miles distant and these include national stores, cinema and sports centre with indoor swimming pool.

Located between Helston and Porthleven is the beautiful Penrose Estate, managed by The National Trust, with its many walks and trails through the Cornish countryside around Loe Pool which is Cornwall's largest natural fresh water lake. Porthleven has a prize winning Brass Band which, on many a summer's Sunday evening, can be heard echoing around the village, creating atmosphere and ambience for both residents and visitors.
