The property is in a stunning location on the south west coastal footpath and is within walking distance of a secluded beach and cove. The fishing village of Coverack with its amenities is a short stroll away. The property benefits from two parking spaces, double glazing and a real feature of the property is the communal grounds where from many points stunning sea and coastal views can be enjoyed along with use of the tennis court.

The accommodation, in brief, provides on the ground floor a fitted kitchen/diner, lounge with slate tiled flooring. One ascends to the first floor where there is a landing, three bedrooms, one of which enjoys a views past the main property to the sea and a nicely appointed shower room. The property is warmed by a mixture of electrical heating.

Coverack itself is a Cornish fishing village situated on the Lizard Peninsula, which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. The Cove itself has a lovely sandy beach which is a popular centre for water sports that include windsurfing, stand-up paddle boarding, sailing and diving. There is an attractive harbour from which a small fleet of traditional fishing boats operate and land their daily catch. There is a public house, restaurants, a shop selling local produce and a primary school.

St Keverne village is a short drive away and has a number of shops, including a butcher's and doctors surgery whilst comprehensive schooling can be found in the nearby village of Mullion. The bustling market town of Helston which has more extensive amenities including national stores and supermarkets, is some eight miles distant.
