Situated in the popular residential area of Penponds Road, in the highly sought-after Cornish fishing village of Porthleven, this detached five-bedroom chalet-style bungalow offers spacious and versatile accommodation.

The property benefits from LPG central heating and double glazing and has been extensively enhanced and improved by the current owners. From the property, there are pleasant views over the village towards the surrounding countryside and out to sea.

A driveway provides off-road parking and leads to the garage. In brief, the accommodation comprises a covered entrance porch, hallway, kitchen/diner, lounge, family bathroom, shower room, and three bedrooms on the ground floor. The first floor offers a further shower room and two additional bedrooms.

The garage incorporates a useful workshop area and utility space. The gardens wrap around the property and feature a lawned area, raised flower beds, patio seating areas, a greenhouse, and a shed—ideal for both relaxation and gardening enthusiasts.

Porthleven is a thriving seaside Cornish fishing village with its large harbour providing a focal point. Around this cluster many pubs, restaurants and businesses. The village provides amenities to cater for everyday needs as well as a primary school, whilst the more comprehensive amenities of Helston are a few miles distant and these include national stores, cinema and sports centre with indoor swimming pool.

Located between Helston and Porthleven is the beautiful Penrose Estate, managed by The National Trust, with its many walks and trails through the Cornish countryside around Loe Pool which is Cornwall's largest natural fresh water lake. Porthleven has a prize winning Brass Band which, on many a summer's Sunday evening, can be heard echoing around the village, creating atmosphere and ambience for both residents and visitors.
